

Welcome Aboard ZINGARO!

Experience the learning vacation of a lifetime onboard the sailing yacht ZINGARO – your “Passport” to a fabulous crewed sailing charter! ZINGARO sails from St Thomas USVI from December through March; enjoy all the Caribbean has to offer while you kick back and revel in the glorious tradewinds and crystal clear waters. From May to October, sail ZINGARO from Solomons MD and lose yourself in the scenic beauty and history of the Chesapeake Bay. Wherever you sail ZINGARO, you’re sure to delight in her superb performance and comforts.

The Passport 47 ZINGARO is a finely crafted, semi-custom yacht designed by the legendary Bob Perry for ocean voyaging. You’ll appreciate the luxurious amenities throughout this superbly-engineered yacht. ZINGARO has 3 double cabins, 2 ensuite heads, spacious main saloon, generator and air-conditioning, and modern electronics. Topside features include a huge cockpit, afterdeck, roller furling sails, rib dinghy with outboard.

Lisa & Andy Batchelor are ZINGARO’s Owners/Captain/Crew - both USCG Captains and top instructors with the American Sailing Association, as well as owners of Sail Solomons Sailing School. You can learn to sail informally, or attain ASA certification on your vacation. Advanced sailing courses, navigation and tailored instruction are specialties onboard ZINGARO! Cruising itineraries are tailored to fit your desires – as action-packed or leisurely as you like!

ZINGARO welcomes up to four guests for overnight charters in two well-appointed queen staterooms, each with ensuite head/shower. Each stateroom features fine linens, fans, reading lights, hanging lockers, air conditioning, and privacy. ZINGARO can comfortably accommodate six guests for daysail charters on the Chesapeake Bay.

Enjoy the sunset as you relax with a well-deserved cocktail after a day of glorious sailing, snorkeling, sunbathing and exploring. You’ll be rewarded with delectable meals of the freshest local offerings, prepared to perfection in ZINGARO’s well-equipped galley and BBQ. Dine al fresco in the shaded cockpit, or in the spacious main salon. Spend an evening under a canopy of stars, as you let your dreams set sail!
